Official Form 101

Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy

04/20

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, “Do you own a car,” the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5: Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

15. Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

- ☒ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

- ☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

- ☐ I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

- ☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

- ☐ Incapacity.
I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.
- ☐ Disability.
My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.
- ☐ Active duty.
I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

Official Form 106C

Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt

4/19

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy,
and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts.
Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C.
§ 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

Chapter 7: Liquidation

$245	filing fee
$78	administrative fee
+	$15 trustee surcharge
$338	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their non-exempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes;

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft;

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A-1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form—the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A-2). The calculations on the form—sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

	$1,167	filing fee
+	$571	administrative fee
	$1,738	total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$278	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$78	administrative fee
	$313	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

- domestic support obligations,
- most student loans,
- certain taxes,
- debts for fraud or theft,
- debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity,
- most criminal fines and restitution obligations,
- certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers,
- certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and
- certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/forms/bankruptcy-forms>

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to:
<http://www.uscourts.gov/services-forms/bankruptcy/credit-counseling-and-debtor-education-courses>.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

 - a. The base fee due to Attorney is $3,900.00. This does not include the filing fee of $313.00 required by the United States Bankruptcy Court and a credit report fee of $37.00. The total fee including filing fees is $4,250.00.
 - b. Prior to filing the case with the Bankruptcy Court Client will pay Attorney no less than $700.00 as the complete retainer. This includes the filing fee and credit report fee. Please remember that you are not protected by the Bankruptcy Code until this amount is paid, you sign your bankruptcy petition and schedules and your case is filed with the court.
 - c. Upon signing this retainer agreement Client shall pay no less than $700.00 as a partial retainer fee. This amount is earned upon receipt and is not refundable. This partial retainer amount shall be applied towards the complete retainer shown in paragraph (b) above. When you come to our office to sign your bankruptcy petition and schedules we will require that you pay the remaining difference in this amount and the complete retainer. After you pay the complete retainer and sign your completed schedules we will file your case with the Bankruptcy Court and you will be protected by the automatic stay.
 - d. The remaining balance shall be paid through the Chapter 13 reorganization as a part of the payment to the Chapter 13 Trustee.
 - e. This fee is based upon the following mutually agreed-upon conditions:
 - (1) Client agrees to provide Attorney with accurate and complete information regarding Client's debts, assets and any other information relevant to the case in a timely manner prior to the filing of this case;
 - (2) Attorney does not in any way guarantee the accuracy of the information obtained from any credit report and Client understands that it is Client's duty to convey the necessary information and documentation to properly prepare Client's case. Client understands and acknowledges that the use of a credit report should never be the exclusive source for information regarding Client's debts.

- (3) Client understands and agrees that court online records may not be accurate as to pending actions or filed pleadings or judgments and agrees to keep Attorney fully informed of any pending actions, judgments or confessions of judgments. Client understands and agrees that failure to bring such information to Attorney's attention or to review court documents filed by Attorney on Client's behalf could result in the omission of this important information and the retention of potential judgment liens.
 - (4) Client will keep Attorney advised at all times of the Client's current mailing address and telephone numbers.
 - (5) Client will pay the complete retainer fee in a reasonable amount of time, but no later than 90 days from this date.
 - (6) Client acknowledges and understands that all payments made to Attorney must be in cash or by certified funds. Personal checks, credit or debit cards will not be accepted in any situation.
- f. If, for any reason, any portion of said attorney's fee is not paid in full within Client's reorganization, for example, if the case is dismissed prior to completion, Client hereby agrees to remit any remaining unpaid balance due to Attorney at the rate of not less $100.00 per month beginning no more than thirty (30) days after the discharge or dismissal of the case.
4. It is understood that in some cases additional work may be required in the case that was not contemplated by the parties or expressly agreed to at the time of entering into this agreement between the attorney and client. Such services include, but are not limited to, adversary actions, addition of a creditor after the petition and schedules have been filed, audits, defense of petitions to dismiss, defense of dischargeability actions, defense of motions to modify the automatic stay, defense of petitions to dismiss case, 2004 examinations, motions to sell an asset or incur debt, motions for a moratorium and any further action required after confirmation. Attorney shall bill said client at a flat fee rate (generally no less than $500.00 per motion) or based upon an hourly rate of no less than $350.00 per hour for attorneys and $175.00 per hour for paralegals/staff depending upon the circumstances of the case. These attorney's fees and the manner of calculation will vary depending upon the action required. In the event that additional work is necessary, Client agrees that any such costs arising in the case may be reimbursed through the Chapter 13 plan. In the event that such costs are not or cannot be paid within the plan of reorganization, Client agrees to reimburse Attorney for these costs on presentment.

A basic list of common actions that generate additional fees include, but are not limited to:

- a. Defense or resolution of a motion to modify the stay
- b. Resolution of a potential motion to modify the stay before the motion is filed
- c. Attorney's attendance at a rescheduled hearing
- d. Defense of a motion to dismiss the case
- e. Representation of client at a hearing on a motion to dismiss (additional fee for hearing)
- f. Motion to reconsider dismissal of the case or to reopen a dismissed case
- g. Application to approve a settlement
- h. Motion for substitution of collateral
- i. Motion to compel turnover of property
- j. Motion to amend the chapter 13 plan after confirmation of case
- k. Motion to incur debt
- l. Motion to sell property

- m. Motion for a moratorium
- n. Motion to voluntarily dismiss case
- o. Correspondence to third parties
- p. Request for an additional copy of a document from the file
- q. Request for an additional copy of the file
- r. Filing a proof of claim on behalf of a creditor (per claim filed)

The fees shown above are the usual fees charged for the shown actions, but individual fees may vary due to the complexity or nature of the case. Adversary proceedings, audits, 2004 examinations and defense of dischargeability actions will usually be billed at the hourly rate.

5. Attorney may incur additional costs during the case including, but not limited to, additional filing fees, mediation fees, postage or service of document fees. Typically, any such fees generated by court requirements to mediate issues or serve documents on creditors or any party in interest may be included within the reorganization and paid through the distribution to creditors. Clients agree that any such costs arising in the case may be reimbursed through the Chapter 13 plan. In the event that such costs are not or cannot be paid within the plan of reorganization, Clients agree to reimburse Attorney for these costs on presentment.
6. It is understood that in the event of litigation, heavily contested motions or heavily contested objections attorney may incur unanticipated costs and expenses in this matter. If such costs are incurred, Client hereby agrees to pay these costs immediately upon presentation. A non-exclusive list of potential costs are: filing fees, costs for depositions and court reporters, witness compensation, appraisers, investigators, expert witnesses, long distance calls, copy charges, federal express or overnight postage, mileage for trips outside of town for hearings or meetings, faxes, subpoenas, photographs, etc.
7. Client may discharge attorney at any time by written notice. Attorney shall be entitled to all fees earned and costs incurred to that date in this matter notwithstanding said discharge by the client. Attorney's fees shall be based on the hourly rates shown in paragraph 4 above. Should Client desire a copy of Attorney's file, payment of fees and costs shall be made before Attorney's release of said file.
8. It is understood and agreed that Attorney shall maintain a copy of Client's file for no greater than one year after the discharge or dismissal of this case. Attorney and Client agree that the file may be destroyed in a reasonable manner after the period of one year from the discharge or dismissal of the case. Client will receive one copy of the petition and schedules filed in this case. If Client requires another copy of the file or any document therein Client understands that there will be an additional charge for retrieving the Client's records and copying the necessary documents.
9. Attorney may, in his or her absolute discretion, withdraw from representing client in this matter at any time upon written notice to client. Client agrees to sign a substitution form if required.
10. An account is past due and shall immediately become due and owing in full when payment on account is not paid within fifteen (15) days of billing. Attorney shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees and costs for the collection of any past due account. If more than one client has signed this agreement, each client agrees to be jointly and severally liable for payment of all fees, costs or other charges.
11. Client understands and agrees that Attorney will represent Client to the best of his or her ability, but Attorney does not guarantee or promise a specific result to Client regarding the outcome of this matter.
12. Client understands that this case will not be filed with the Bankruptcy Court until the entire retainer is paid and all requested documents produced. Client further understands that he or she is not protected by the Bankruptcy Code in any way until the case is filed with the court. Please remember that foreclosures and repossessions may occur after you hire an attorney and continuing up until the moment your case is filed with the US Bankruptcy Court. It is important that we get all the necessary information as soon as possible so that we can schedule an appointment for you to review and sign your bankruptcy petition and file it with the court.

13. I have read the above attorney retainer agreement and understand its terms fully. I acknowledge that there are no other agreements, verbal or otherwise, between Client and Attorney. By my signature below I agree to be bound by its terms.
